

Amy C. Ekeh
amyek@outlook.com
amyek@com

EDUCATION

MASTER OF ARTS: THEOLOGY, May 2000
The Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C.
Summa Cum Laude

BACHELOR OF ARTS: THEOLOGY, May 1998
The University of Dallas, Irving, TX
Magna Cum Laude

EXPERIENCE

Director – Little Rock Scripture Study (Liturgical Press)
July 2019 to Present

Plans, develops, and manages publication of Scripture study resources for this program of Liturgical Press.

Liturgical Press Editor – Liturgical Press
March 2021 to Present

Developmental editing and copyediting of books and resources for Liturgical Press, including Give Us This Day books and Liturgical Press seasonal books.

Instructor – Hartford Catholic Biblical School
Archdiocese of Hartford, CT, Fall 2012 to Present

Year 2, “New Testament Foundations” and Year 4, “The Word in the Hellenistic World.”

Adjunct Professor – Sacred Heart University
Fairfield, CT, 2013 to Present

Online courses on a variety of New Testament topics.

Retreat Facilitator and Speaker
2009 to Present

Offer talks, retreats, and days of reflection on a variety of topics as requested.

Associate Editor – Little Rock Scripture Study (Diocese of Little Rock)
Feb. 2018 – June 2019

Edited and consulted with LRSS staff to develop Bible study resources for parish use.

Director of Adult Faith Formation – St. John the Evangelist Catholic Parish
Clinton, MD, April 2009-July 2011

Designed and implemented adult faith formation opportunities for parishioners.

Hearts Aflame Instructor – Archdiocese of Washington
Washington, D.C., Fall 2008 – Summer 2011

Prepared curriculum and taught courses in the Archdiocese of Washington’s catechist certification program. Courses taught include: Creed, Sacraments, Christian Morality, Christian Prayer, Introduction to Sacred Scripture, Ministry of Catechesis, Catechetical Methodology.

Director of Religious Education – St. John the Evangelist Catholic Parish Clinton, MD, June 2000 – June 2002

Designed and directed parish religious education program for students from PK–6th grade.

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS

Catholic Biblical Association of America
Associate Member

Association of Catholic Publishers
Member

ACADEMIC HONORS AND AWARDS

John Quasten Full Tuition Scholarship, The Catholic University of America, 1998-2000

Graduate Research Assistantship, The Catholic University of America, 1999-2000

University Cardinal Spellman Award, The University of Dallas, 1998

Department of Theology 1998 Student of the Year Award, The University of Dallas, 1998

Phi Beta Kappa, The University of Dallas, 1998

PUBLICATIONS

Book: Not by Bread Alone: Daily Reflections for Lent 2022
with Thomas D. Stegman, SJ
Liturgical Press, 2022

Article: “Giving Thanks in All Circumstances”
The Bible Today, November/December 2021

Essay: “Julian’s Flute”
Magnificat, June 2021

Column: “Bible in 5”
Catholic Digest, September 2018–August 2020

Essay: “Mark My Words”
Magnificat, August 2020

Article: “10 Reasons to Fast This Lent”
St. Anthony Messenger, February 2019

Column: “The Sunday Gospel”
Catechist Magazine, 2015–2018

Book: Finding Peace, Letting Go of Stress and Worry (Alive in the Word series)
Little Rock Scripture Study/Liturgical Press, 2019

Essay: “Divine Camouflage: To My Youngest Son”
Magnificat, September 2018

Book: Advent, Season of Divine Encounter (Alive in the Word series)
Little Rock Scripture Study/Liturgical Press, 2018

Article: “Popular Devotions Return Us to God”

Liguorian Magazine, January 2018

Book: Lent, Season of Transformation (Alive in the Word series)

Little Rock Scripture Study/Liturgical Press, 2017

Essay: “Plaids with Polka Dots”

Liguorian Magazine, July–August 2017

Article: “I Will Remember for You”

St. Anthony Messenger, January 2017

Essay: “Christ’s Own Forever”

Magnificat, January 2017

Article: “10 New Ways to Pray”

St. Anthony Messenger, September 2016

Article: “Why We Love Our Ashes”

St. Anthony Messenger, February 2016

Article: “The Garden as a Place of Agony”

The Bible Today, May/June 2015

Article: “Welcome Lent”

St. Anthony Messenger, March 2015

Blog: Variety of topics in Scripture and spirituality

www.amyekeh.com, February 2014 to present